Role: Heritage Interpreter

Where: Sarehole Hill

When: Once a week (Wednesday, Thursday or Friday) outside holidays
10:45am – 4.00pm

Are you passionate about history? Are you confident and approachable? Do you enjoy meeting new people? Are you a real people person with some time to give? If so, we are currently recruiting Heritage Interpreters to engage visitors to Sarehole Mill, research new stories and assist with events and activities at the mill.

What does the role involve?

- Providing a warm welcome to visitors
- Enhancing the visitor experience with your knowledge of the mill, objects on display and people who worked here
- Engaging visitors' senses by running activities such as handling historic objects
- Research new stories about the mill
- Being part of the team looking after visitors and supporting events on the site

Skills/Qualifications required?

- Approachable and friendly
- Able to work independently at times but be a good team player too
- Confident and able to bring historical stories to life
- Interest in/knowledge of history
- Honest, reliable and committed
- Passionate about supporting your local museums

If you are successful then you will have the chance to develop an excellent knowledge of Sarehole Mill, gain customer facing experience and bring history to life.

Training and support will be provided
